WEDDING.

On Wednesday last, at St. Columba's Church, Delungra, a quiet, but pretty wedding took place, when Thelma Kathleen, second daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Rogers, of "Glendon," Myall Creek, was joined in the holy bonds of matrimony to Leslie, eldest son of Mr. E. McGrath, of Warialda, and the late Mrs. McGrath. The Rev. R. O'Hara officiated.

The bride looked radiant as she entered the church on the arm of her father, who subsequently gave her away. She was gowned in a frock of white bridal satin, cut on classical lines. Her veil was held in place by a coronet of orange blossoms, and a bouquet of pink roses and chrysanthemums completed a very effective toilette. The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Mary Rogers, who chose pink taffeta for her frock, and her head-dress was a halo of tulle mounted on pink flowers.

The bridegroom was attended by Mr. Lindsay Rogers.

As the bride entered the church, and during the service, appropriate hymns were sung, Mrs. Fleming presiding at the organ. The wedding breakfast, which was attended only by immediate relatives, was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mr. and Mrs. McGrath's future home will be at Myall Creek.
